

June 11, 2009

PRESS RELEASE FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact: Alex Patton
Cell: 352-682-9082

War Room Logistics poll shows Carey Baker with early lead over Adam Putnam for Florida Agriculture Commission, Meek leading Gelber for US Senate.

GAINESVILLE, FL June 11, 2009 / -- A poll conducted June 3-4, 2009 of Florida's Voters indicates Carey Baker has an early lead over Adam Putnam among Republicans in the race for Florida's Agriculture Commission, and among Democrats, Kendrick Meek has an early lead over Dan Gelber for the US Senate.

When Republican voters were asked, "If the election was held today for Florida's Agriculture Commissioner, and the candidates (I will read them in alphabetical order by last name) were Republicans: State Senator Carey Baker and Congressman Adam Putnam, which one would you vote for?"

Carey Baker	25.7%
Adam Putnam	17.3%
Someone else	7.1%
Undecided	49.9%

When Democratic voters were asked, "If the election was held today for the United States Senate, and the candidates (I will read them in alphabetical order by last name) were Democrats : State Senator Dan Gelber, and US Representative Kendrick Meek, which one would you vote for?"

Dan Gelber	20.8%
Kendrick Meek	26.6%
Someone else	12.1%
Undecided	40.6%

Other questions such as primary head-to head match ups of Charlie Crist v. Marco Rubio for US Senate, Dave Aronberg v. Rod Smith for Florida Attorney General, as well as Florida's opinions of President Obama's Job Performance as well as the job performance ratings of all Florida's cabinet officers, Florida's Senate President, and Florida's Speaker of the House as well as all cross tabs will be available via War Room Logistics' Vault located at www.warroomlogistics.com by 5PM June 12, 2009.

Methodology

879 registered voters in the State of Florida were interviewed in a random sample taken June 3 and June 4, 2009. Voters were screened for voter registration. All interviews were conducted by telephone surveys utilizing IVR technology. The margin of error for this survey is +3.31% with a 95% confidence level. Crosstabs of party primaries have a higher MOE of +5.0%.

ABOUT WAR ROOM LOGISTICS, LLC

War Room logistics is a leading provider of market and political intelligence for corporations, media companies, and political organizations and campaigns utilizing IVR technology. The web company's web address is www.warroomlogistics.com.

